Sojourners' Internship Program

Thank you for your interest in the Sojourners Internship Program. The yearlong program combines work placements in our nonprofit office with an opportunity to live in an intentional Christian community. Between 7 and 10 interns are selected into the program each year.

Sojourners' internship program is one of Christian discipleship, with an integrated focus on:

- Life and Faith: Participants live in a shared household in Washington, D.C. Together, interns worship, share meals, manage a common budget, engage in weekly house meetings, pray, and experience life as an intentional Christian community.
- Prayer and Formation: Sojourners' interns participate in educational seminars, spiritual retreats, and mentorship.
- Work and Mission: Interns work full-time in the ministry of Sojourners. Each participant is placed in an entry-level position in one of our departments.

Before applying, please read more about the program and Sojourners' mission on our website at www.sojo.net/interns.

Application Qualifications: The program is open to anyone 21 years or older who is single or married without dependents and has a Social Security number. We are an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity. Interns must commit to serve the entire program year: August 15, 2016 - August 7, 2017.

Compensation: Sojourners pays for all expenses relating to housing, meals, and health insurance for the community. Each individual also receives a $100 monthly stipend.

How to apply: Applications will be accepted starting September 1, 2015. The deadline for applications is March 1, 2016. The selection process includes review of your application by several staff members, a telephone interview, and an offer of a specific position in the program. Notification of acceptance will begin in late April 2016.

Only completed application packets will be considered. The application has four parts:

1. Individual application
2. Personal Essay
3. Resume (cover letter is not needed)
4. Three (3) Recommendation Forms: peer reference, clergy/faith leader reference, and employer reference

Send completed application materials via: email (volunteer@sojo.net), fax (202-328-8757) or mail to Sojourners Internship Program, 3333 14th St. NW, Suite 200; Washington, DC 20010. Thank you for your interest in the Sojourners Internship Program.

II. PERSONAL ESSAY

This essay gives Sojourners an opportunity to hear your interest and understanding of our mission as an organization. Please answer fully and honestly – in 650 words or less. Your essay will also be used as your writing sample for the application.

Topic: Sojourners' mission is to articulate the biblical call to social justice, inspiring hope, and building a movement to transform individuals, communities, the church, and the world. A year at Sojourners is likely to be touched by these elements. What attracts you to a year of working with Sojourners and living in intentional community with other interns? How is Sojourners' mission shaping your life currently?

III. RESUME

Please submit your resume with your application packet. It should include all of the following pieces:

- employment from the past five years;
- educational history;
- volunteer, political, or social organizations with which you've been significantly involved and the nature of your involvement.
- Links to published work or blogs

In order to share all this information, please do not feel confined to a traditional one-page format.

IV. REFERENCES

Please ask three people—a peer, a former/current employer, and clergy or pastoral leader—to complete a recommendation form for you using the attached forms. Instruct them to return the letters directly to the Sojourners Internship Director by March 1, 2016.

References can be mailed to 3333 14th St. NW, Suite 200, Washington, DC 20010; emailed to volunteer@sojo.net (preferred); or faxed to (202) 328-8757.

Please list here the names, addresses, and phone numbers of those people who will be sending us letters on your behalf. Due to the number of applicants, we cannot confirm receipt of individual references.
